

Our trip to see Punxsatawney Phil

February 2, 2006

A Meteorology/Climatology
Tradition at Buffalo State

Student's from Buffalo State College made the 3:00 a.m. pilgrimage to Gobblers Knob to hear Punxsatawney Phil make his prognostication.

14,000 people gathered at Gobblers Knob

Will he see his shadow, forecasting six more weeks of winter, or will it be an early spring?

World Famous Weather Forecaster outside the Weather Discovery Center!

Prognostication

"It's my shadow I see. Six more weeks of mild winter there will be".

Watching the movie "Groundhog Day" in Punxsatawney, PA.

Spotting a fake member of the Inner Circle.

An outlook based on the forecast of 16+ groundhogs.

Will there be a Groundhog Day in 2007?
